

INDEPENDENT SPECIALTY TRAINERS FOR MENTAL HEALTH AND DEMENTIA

ADSA Aging & Disability
Services Administration

Manager Dementia specialty and/or Manager Mental Health specialty trainings are required trainings for Adult Family Home providers, Resident Managers, and Boarding Home administrators (or designees). Caregiver dementia and mental health specialty training are the required trainings on those specialties for boarding home caregivers. Competency testing is not required for Adult Family Home caregivers.

The following list of Independent Trainers are experienced in both mental health and/or dementia caregiving practices and are capable of demonstrating competency in the entire course content. They meet all the requirements stated in WAC 388-112-0350 through WAC 388-112-0400. See Page 5 for registration information.

REGISTRATION

To register and confirm dates for the mental health and/or dementia specialty training classes:

- Contact the trainers directly in your region. (NOTE: If you are not able to connect with a trainer in your region please check with other trainers in other regions as some trainers will travel.)
- Leave your name, address, phone numbers, fax and/or email address.
- Leave your Boarding Home/Adult Family Home license if applicable.

Trainers will then send registration materials to you. You will need to complete the registration, which includes sending the trainer the information they request on their registration forms and sending in the training fee for the specific classes.

WHICH TRAINING SHOULD I TAKE?

- If you want to serve people with a mental health problem like depression, anxiety, or schizophrenia, you need to take the Mental Health Specialty Training.
- If you want to serve people with a dementia, you need to take the Dementia Specialty Training.
- If you want to serve both groups, you need to take both trainings.

NOTE: BH administrators, designees, AFH providers, Resident Managers must take the Manager's Specialty Training.

BH caregivers must take Caregiver Training.

AFH caregivers need to receive training regarding the specialty needs of individual residents. No curriculum and no test required.
